COMPLIANCE ORDER

IN THE MATTER OF

THE BUSINESS PRACTICES & CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c. 2 and
THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c.35 and
THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES REGULATION

Respondent: Steven Colon

Adjudicator: Laura Casey, Vice President Analytics, Business and Consumer Services

Date of Order: November 28, 2022

In accordance with notice requirements under the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act (“BPCPA”) section 155 and Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act (“CIFSA”) section 56(2)(c), the respondent has been found to have committed a contravention of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Service Regulation section 38(1)(b) by failing to complete the minimum required six hours of training in a program of embalming services approved by the Director during the past two-year successive period (August 11, 2020 to August 11, 2022) from when the licence was first issued.

Pursuant to section 155(4)(c)(d) of the BPCPA and section 56(2)(c) of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act, this Compliance Order requires:

1. The course taken by the respondent on October 14, 2022 (totalling 3 embalmer credits) be applied to the 2020-2022 period to satisfy the requirements for that period.
2. Before December 28, 2022, make payment to Consumer Protection BC the amount of $150.00 as partial reimbursement for inspection costs.
3. Except with the express prior written permission of the Director, any failure to provide the information or payment by the dates listed in this Order is a breach of the terms of the Order.

RECONSIDERATION PROCESS

BPCPA section 181 of the CIFSA section 60 provide, in part, that a person may request a reconsideration of a compliance order.

The request must be in writing and identify the error believed was made or other grounds.

Section 182 of the BPCPA provides that the Director may reconsider determinations and may confirm, vary, or cancel a determination. A decision to vary or cancel a determination may only be made if the Director is satisfied that new evidence has become available or has been discovered that:

- is substantial and material to the determination, and
- did not exist at the time of the review or did exist at that time but was discovered and could not through the exercise of reasonable diligence have been discovered.

Pursuant to BPCPA section 181(1) and CIFSA section 60(5), a person may request the Director to reconsider a determination within 30 days of receiving the order, or within a period specified by the director if any special circumstances exist.

There is a $262.00 (two hundred sixty-two dollar) reconsideration application fee which must be submitted with the request for reconsideration. The fee will be refunded to the applicant if the reconsideration results in the full reversal of the decision.

A decision on reconsideration is final and may only be judicially reviewed.

Information on the reconsideration process can be found at www.consumerprotectionbc.ca.
