THE BUSINESS PRACTICES & CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c. 2 and THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c.35 and
THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES REGULATION

Respondent: Ranbir Chambal

Adjudicator: Tegan Scardillo, Director of Business Practices and Classification

Date of Order: September 10, 2024

In accordance with notice requirements under the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act (“BPCPA”) section 155 and Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act (“CIFSA”) section 56(2)(c), the respondent has been found to have committed a contravention of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Service Regulation section 38(1)(a) and 38(1)(b) by failing to complete the minimum required six hours of training in an approved program of funeral services and embalming services during the past two-year successive period (January 14, 2022 to January 14, 2024) from when the licence was first issued.

Pursuant to section 155(4)(c)(d) of the BPCPA and section 56(2)(c) of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act, this Compliance Order requires:

1. Before October 14, 2024, complete six hours of training in an approved program of funeral services and six hours of training in an approved program of embalming services. These hours of training will be credited to the respondent’s continuing education requirements for the two-year period of January 14, 2022 to January 14, 2024 in order to satisfy minimum training requirements for the period. For clarity, these ordered hours of approved training are in addition to the minimum hours of training the respondent must complete during the current two-year period of January 14, 2024 to January 14, 2026.
 2. Before October 21, 2024, provide Consumer Protection BC with the certificate of completion for the training required in paragraph 1.
 3. Except with the express prior written permission of the Director, any failure to provide the information or payment by the dates listed in this Order is a breach of the terms of the Order.
