Voluntary Business Closure
 Travel Agency/Wholesaler

Please notify Consumer Protection BC if you chose to voluntarily close your licensed business. This will allow us to update our records and manage your account accordingly.

I, _____, President/Director of _____ hereby request that our license as a travel retailer/wholesaler (License # _____) under the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act (the Act), be cancelled effective _____.

 DD/MM/YYYY

I further acknowledge that selling travel services and operating as a travel agent without a valid BC license is a contravention of s. 142 of the Act. Section 1 of the Travel Industry Regulation defines "travel services" to mean "transportation, accommodation or another service combined with transportation or accommodation".

I confirm there will be no claims to the Travel Assurance Fund resulting from the cancellation of Consumer Protection BC license # _____.

I hereby surrender our Consumer Protection BC licence certificate and confirm that _____ will not represent itself as being registered with Consumer Protection BC and will no longer use or display the Consumer Protection BC license number or logo.

SECURITY (IF APPLICABLE)

1. Return of securities will be issued in the name of the licensed business only.
2. The business closure date will be used to determine when security can be released.
3. Please ensure that you update our office with any address changes between the business closure date and the security release date.
