THE BUSINESS PRACTICES & CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c. 2 and THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES ACT, S.B.C. 2004 c.35 and THE CREMATION INTERMENT AND FUNERAL SERVICES REGULATION

In accordance with notice requirements under the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act (“BPCPA”) section 155 and Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act (“CIFSA”) section 56(2)(c), the respondent has been found to have committed a contravention of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Service Regulation section 38(1)(b) by failing to complete the minimum required six hours of training in a program of embalming services approved by the Director during the past two-year successive period (June 15, 2019 to June 15, 2021) from when the licence was first issued.

Pursuant to section 155(4)(c)(d) of the BPCPA and section 56(2)(c) of the Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act, this Compliance Order requires:

These four hours of approved training in embalming services will be credited to the respondent’s continuing education requirements for the two-year period of June 15, 2019 to June 15, 2021 in order to satisfy minimum training requirements for the period. For clarity, this ordered four hours of approved training in embalming services is in addition to the minimum six hours of approved training in embalming services and six hours of approved training in funeral services the respondent must complete during the current two-year period of June 15, 2021 to June 15, 2023.
2. Before November 23, 2021, provide Consumer Protection BC with a certificate of completion for the approved training required in paragraph 1.
